THE RUMORED TREATY WITH MAXIMILIAN.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Journal states that a treaty has been agreed upon between our Government and the Imperial Government of Mexico, under which the United States is to assume the protectorate of Mexico after the abdication of MAXIMILIAN, and after the withdrawal of the French troops.

It may be true that some arrangement of this kind is in the wind; but how can our Government enter into a treaty with an authority or government which it has never recognized? The Juarez government, and that only, has been diplomatically known to our government ever since the advent of MAXIMILIAN; it would, therefore, be a very strange proceeding on the part of the United States to recognize that dissolving monarch, as having the destiny of Mexico at his disposal, just at the moment his throne is crumbling under the vigorous blows of the Republicans.

If we are correct in our recollection, the Confederate Government, while flourishing under the rule of JEFF. DAVIS, did recognize MAXIMILIAN. Perhaps it is under that precedent and that authority that Messrs. JOHNSON and SEWARD are acting in this matter; for there is certainly no other authority under which they could lawfully act. But we think it very much more probable that the whole affair is a canard.

That Mexico will ultimately, and soon, pass under the rule of the United States, lies, we think, in the natural and inevitable course of events. It is now clear that the Mexicans are incapable of maintaining a stable government of their own, whether regal or republican. They are consequently in a fit condition to be set aside as a political power, and be obliged to give place to a new set. But whether that new ruling class shall go in as immigrants, or filibusters, or as national armies, or all of these, is one of those questions which time must solve.

Whatever treaties are made, whether with MAXIMILIAN or anybody else, must first be ratified by a two-thirds vote of the Senate before they can have any validity.

IN the State of New York the Republicans are conducting the canvass with energy and wisdom. Numerous meetings have been held, and many more are to follow. From the names of the speakers announced, we judge that the discussions, in conformity to the magnitude of the State, are of a more searching and exhaustive character than has been customary. In the metropolis the Democrats will poll an unprecedented majority. Defections from the Republican ranks, and large accessions of voters from the Southern States, both with a view to influencing trade from the rebels, will conspire with the ordinary causes to give the coalition candidates unprecedented strength. But this will be more than neutralized by the rural districts. Our best informed friends count the State safe, and the re-election of Governor FENTON already assured.

IN the XIIth Congressional District Mr. JAMES ARCHBALD, Republican, will contest the seat of Mr. CHARLES DENNISON, Democrat. In precincts, registering only 300 taxables, as high as 750 votes were polled. These frauds were perpetrated by double voting and by forged certificates of naturalization. Of these certificates 300 were secured in one batch. No doubt exists in Luzerne county as to proving frauds sufficient to unseat Mr. DENNISON and let Mr. ARCHBALD in. From personal knowledge of the men engaged in ferreting out the details of this swindle, we know it will be done thoroughly, and when done, it will establish a Republican gain of three in the Congressional delegation from this State.

—Gen. Sheridan's report of the condition of the freedmen in Louisiana should silence those who pretend that the negro needs no other protection than that the planter chooses to extend. Sheridan, who is neither politician nor Radical, declares that, now that the crops have been gathered, the freedmen are, to a great extent, discharged by their employers, on slight pretexts, and, without obtaining any wages, left destitute for the Winter. Outrages on the freedmen are common, and Gen. Sheridan says emphatically that "the trial of a white man for killing a freedman is nothing but a farce." To the benefits of the Freedmen's Bureau he bears earnest testimony. No honest, intelligent, unprejudiced mind can continue to believe in the justice of Andrew Johnson's policy of giving the whole South into the hands of Rebels in the face of innumerable facts like these which Sheridan has furnished.—*N. —Of Swinburne's new book, Laus Veneris and other poems and ballads, recently suppressed in England and soon to be published in New York by Carleton, the London Examiner sharply says: "The withdrawal of that volume is an act of weakness of which any publisher who does not give himself up to the keeping of a milk-walk for the use of babes, has reason to be heartily ashamed."

TERRIBLE STORM AT NASSAU, N. P.

HALF THE TOWN IN RUINS.

NATIONAL RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS.

WASHINGTON, October 20.—The President has ordered the pardon of Michael Kilrain, who was convicted at the May term (1866) of the United States Court for the Northern District of Ohio, of passing counterfeit fractional currency, and sentenced to one year's imprisonment.

Lieutenant Commander William Gibson, commanding the United States steamer Tahoma, reports to the Navy Department, under date of Nassau, New Providence, on the 9th inst., the following:

"On the 3d and 4th instant, when on a line between the Bermudas and Hatteras, we encountered a revolving storm of hurricane violence. We are not in distress, but the damages sustained are serious. As carefully computed from our observations, the cyclon was moving E. N. E. at the rate of thirteen miles per hour. Its centre, when nearest to us, was in lat. 33 deg. N., long. 72 deg., 40 minutes, 20 seconds West; bore S. S. E. forty miles distant. Its whole diameter was above 250 miles. It came on us suddenly and with little premonition, the barometer registering rather than foretelling the changes of wind and weather. The sea rose so rapidly and great, so dangerously heavy and confused, that being satisfied we were in the left hand semi-circle of the storm, I deemed it safe to abide the issue by heaving the Tahoma to one of the port tack.

The centre of the hurricane passed over the Island of New Providence on the 1st instant, and the scene of wreck and devastation is marvellous and very sad to see. More than half of Nassau is in ruins. Most of the houses are unroofed, many blown to pieces, and some moved bodily from their foundations into the streets. The churches, warehouses and other buildings of solid stone, are shattered as if by a bombardment. The trees are destroyed leaf and branch, as if by a conflagration. Nearly every vessel and boat is sunk or swept high and dry.

On the outer Islands the destruction of property and the consequent suffering is said to be dreadful. The important light at the Hole in the Wall is not burning; the harbor light here is only a temporary lantern; the lights on the stirrup key on the Great Isaacs and on gun key are reported to be uninjured, though the tower of the first named is crooked. Judging from the dismantled and otherwise distressed vessels that we have seen, both at sea and in this port, the chapter of casualties from this hurricane will not be a brief one. A more complete report with all the duties and diagrams relating to this hurricane, the meteorological log of Her Britanic Majesty's steamer Nimble, blown ashore in this harbor, and other interesting information, I will send by the first opportunity to the Bureau of Navigation.

The Governor of Minnesota has filed in the General Land Office a map of the located line of route of the Mississippi and Lake Superior Railroad from St. Paul to Dunleith in that State, for which a grant of land was made by act of Congress approved May 7th, 1864. The Commissioner is taking the necessary steps for the withdrawal of the land granted by the act in conformity to the line of route filed. The Governor has also filed a map of the first division of the St. Paul and Pacific Railroad showing the location and construction of sixty miles of the branch line of said road from St. Anthony to a point near St. Cloud in that State.

The President has appointed B. B. Kennedy, of Nebraska Territory, Receiver of Public Moneys, for the district of the lands subject to sale at Omaha, Nebraska, and Stephen F. Purdy, Register of the Land Office, at Detroit, Mich.

In a case where the widow of a deceased officer applied for the three months pay proper that would have accrued to him under the law of March 3d, 1865, had he been living at the date of the passage of the act, has been decided by the proper accounting officer of the Treasury that the right of inheritance did not survive, as the law makes no provision for the descent of this extra pay to the heirs of an officer in case of his death.

The Internal revenue receipts for the week ending to-day foot up at $4,661,808.28. To-day's receipts were $884,428.10. The total amount from this source during this fiscal year amount to $117,818,807.32; National bank notes issued during the week, $251,245; amount issued to date, $274,377,395. The amount of fractional currency received during the week is $511,600; sent to the Assistant Treasurer at New York, $200,000, and to the National banks, $298,600.21; fractional currency destroyed during the week, $239,800. The following is the report of cash in the Treasury vaults at this date: Treasury notes, $286,611; fractional currency, $252,901; gold, $350,659; silver, $2,560; five cent coin, $550; three cent coin, $600; cents, $250. Total, $5,369,131.

The disbursements for the week on account were as follows: War Department, $3,004,548.57; Navy Department, $1,433,400.99; Interior Department, $148,193.80. Total, $4,586,943.36.

THE BALTIMORE DIFFICULTY.

Large Meeting of Veterans.

ADDRESS TO THE BOYS IN BLUE.

THE LOYAL POLICE BOARD MUST BE SUSTAINED.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 20.—Last night a large meeting of veterans, representing the Boys in Blue, was held in Baltimore. It was presided over by Brig. Gen. Woolley, who advised them to stand shoulder to shoulder in this contest, as they had done in the field. The following address was unanimously agreed upon:

BOYS IN BLUE, ATTENTION!—The events now transpiring in this city make it incumbent on us once more to assemble in massed columns to resist the attempts of traitors in our midst to deprive loyal men of this city of the control of its affairs, and leave us to the tender mercies of our deadliest enemies. You will at once report yourselves to your officers for assignment for duty, and hold yourselves ready at a moment's notice, to defend our sacred rights, now menaced and endangered by the same despicable traitors whose ready sympathy was always and ever for rebels in arms, and whose curses always followed us on every bloody field of the Maryland line. We have fought and conquered the rebels who had the manliness to face us in the field. We have now to regulate these heretics who for the last four years have stood with yard-stick and crockery-ware in hand, ready to furnish their dear friends of the South with their valuable sympathy. The loyal Police Board of Baltimore must be sustained at all hazards and at every cost. Be ready. Be prompt. Each ward will report its strength and organizations on Saturday night, at eight o'clock, at the headquarters of the Unconditional Union Central Committee.

By order of the General Commanding.
(Signed) F. C. TARR,
Colonel and Chief of Staff.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 20.—No new developments have yet been made in regard to the police difficulty. The Police Commissioners will respond to the charges of official misconduct preferred against them, through counsel on Monday. Gov. Swann made a visit to Washington to-day. There is much speculation and many rumors are afloat as to the project of his visit. Nothing definite is known in respect to it; everything as yet concerning it is conjecture. The Boys in Blue hold another meeting to-night to sustain the Police Commissioners.

The Directors of the First National Bank, of which Gov. Swann is President, have petitioned him to desist from his purposes in regard to the Commissioners.

Last Court Martial Adjourned.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 20.—The General Court Martial, of which Brevet Brigadier General Shafler is President, of which Maj. Gen. A. C. Gillem was formerly President, which has been in session in this city for the past two months, to-day adjourned sine die, having concluded the business before them. This was done by order of Maj. Gen. Thomas. This is the last court of volunteer officers in the service, and its adjournment is an evidence that the trial of officers and others connected with the volunteer service has ended with the military courts. The several members of the court are to repair home and report to the Secretary of War for muster out of service. The Judge Advocate, Samuel P. Vooris, formerly Captain of an Illinois regiment, now Lieutenant of the 17th U. S. Infantry, reports to General Thomas.

The case of Thompson Taylor in the United States District Court, has been dismissed by nolle prosequi.

ADVICES FROM EUROPE.

AFFAIRS IN CANDIA LESS SERIOUS.

Interview Between the Pope and the Empress of Mexico.

COMMERCIAL NEWS BY THE CABLE.

FARTHER POINT, October 20.—The steamship Peruvian, from Liverpool of the 11th, via Londonderry on the 12th, has arrived off this point. The news is exceedingly meagre.

The London Daily News says that the Leeds reform demonstration, both in numbers and organization, is admitted to have been more imposing than any of the demonstrations that have preceded it.

The London Telegraph asserts that the state of affairs in Candia become less serious every day.

The cattle plague had made its re-appearance in several places in the Cantons of Gussons and Schaffhaen, Switzerland.

The Empress of Mexico had arrived in Trieste from Rome. A letter dated Rome the 2d inst., and published in the Lyons papers, says: The Empress of Mexico is the subject of much conversation here. Yesterday at 9 A. M., without having requested an audience, she presented herself at the Vatican to see the Holy Father. She was immediately received, and is said to have presented a petition praying the Pope to sanction everything her husband had done as Emperor of Mexico with respect to religious matters. The story goes that the Pope positively refused to do so, when the Empress declared that she would not leave the Vatican if the request was not granted. The writer adds that he cannot guarantee the authenticity of all this, but he is certain that the Empress did not quit the Vatican until six o'clock in the evening. She then retired to the private study of the Pope, and his holiness continued his audiences and daily routine, leaving the Empress with the lady in waiting.

NATURALIZATION IN NEW YORK.

Curious Features in the Business.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Between six and seven thousand naturalized citizens have taken out the necessary papers within the past week before the various courts. There are some curious features in the naturalization business this year. The requirements of the registry law as it is interpreted, have unsettled the usually admitted rights of large numbers of persons of foreign birth who are not to be permitted to vote unless they can prove that they became citizens regularly by the naturalization of their fathers. This proof they cannot produce in a large proportion of the cases arising, and the result is, that before their names are received by the Inspectors of Registry they must take out papers of citizenship. It is found by an examination of the applications received so far, that probably more than half of the number are from persons who have hitherto voted as the minor children of foreign born citizens. Many persons have taken out papers who have been voting and holding office for years. It is asserted that large frauds have been perpetrated by the same documents being handed from one to another and used in different districts.

Advices from Panama.

NEW YORK, October 20.—Panama dates of the 12th announce the arrival of the steamer from Australia and New Zealand with the mail from those countries, but none from Victoria, as the Government of that country have refused to contribute anything towards establishing the line. The steamer brought $70,000 in coin and gold dust.

A new Cabinet had been formed in New Zealand.

The harvest prospects throughout the colonies continue good. The markets are fully supplied with Chilian breadstuffs but stocks of California were small. California wheat 6s 3d @6s 6d. California Flour 16s@16s 10d. Oregon lumber would command high prices. Finances were in a flourishing condition.

A fire at Auckland, commencing in the Governor Hobson Hotel, destroyed $100,000 worth of property. Another, at Nelson, destroyed three hotels, the Temperance Hall, Young Men's Christian Association rooms and thirteen other houses.

The papers are discussing the probable return of the Spanish fleet, and the different Republics continue to strengthen their alliance and fortify their ports. They say if the war be renewed it will be a desperate one. The Government of Peru require foreigners to pay the personal tax, and allow them to vote. The Government of Ecuador has decreed the expulsion of all Spaniards who would not be naturalized in fifty-six days.

Mr. Coggeshal, the new American Minister, was received September 20th.

Fenian Trials in Canada.

TORONTO, C. W., Oct. 20.—More Fenian prisoners were arraigned to-day, one of whom proved to be a lunatic. The American Consul intimated to the Court that he had received instructions from Washington to engage counsel for all the prisoners of American birth.

James J. Rogers, Barrister, of New York city, has volunteered his services, gratis, to defend such prisoners as are Fenian American citizens. In doing so he stipulates that he should receive safe conduct from the Court while here. The application was made to Mr. Justice Wilson through Mr. Thurston, American Consul. After a consultation with Hon. Mr. Cameron, his lordship refused the application on the ground that the applicant was not entitled to practice in Canadian courts. None of the trials will be proceeded with before Wednesday next, by which time a considerable number of prisoners will be ready for trial. When these State trials are taken up, they will occupy the attention of the present judges until they are all gone through with, which will probably be three weeks or a month.

Sale of St. John Park—Custom House Revenue Frauds—Health Report.

NEW YORK, October 20.—By the sale of St. John Park to the Hudson River Railroad Company, Trinity Parish receives $400,000, the remainder of the $100,000 paid them being divided among the owners of property surrounding the Park, at the rate of $13,000 per lot.

The Revenue Commission, which was in session during the past fortnight at the Astor House, has taken a recess for a few days, and will resume its labors next week. A large amount of testimony relative to frauds in the Custom House was taken during the session.

The report of Deputy Health Officer Bissell, received to-day from the hospital ship, is very favorable, no deaths having occurred from cholera, and no admissions of new patients having taken place since previous returns. The steamer Helvetia, whose passengers have been the sufferers, has been thoroughly cleansed and fumigated. The report says she will come up to the city on Sunday evening or Monday morning.

Matters on the Texas Frontier—Fire in New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 20.—The steamer Mississippi, from New York, spoke the steamer Kensington in latitude 33:10, longitude 78, with rudder gone, and declined assistance.

General Sheridan, in a telegram to Governor Throckmorton, says that authority has been given General Heintzleman, Commanding the District of Texas, to concentrate the whole cavalry force under his command at such points on the frontier of Texas as may answer best for protection. The strength of the twenty-one companies is over two thousand men. Should this force be inadequate additional troops will be sent.

A fire occurred here to-night destroying the carriage repository of A. Annan. The loss is not ascertained, but it is presumed that it will not exceed $30,000.

Interesting Suit.

NEW YORK, October 20.—An interesting suit has been commenced in the Supreme Court, by Mr. Calvin Lewis Robinson against Mr. Ethelared Woodward. Both parties at the outbreak of the war were residents of Jacksonville, Florida. Plaintiff claims that in March, 1862, defendant headed a gang who burned up a large quantity of property belonging to him, and now sues to recover its value. Woodward was arrested in this city and held in $50,000 bail. A motion is now made to vacate the order of arrest. The case will be argued next Thursday, before Judge Clarke, in the Chambers of the Supreme Court.

Pennsylvania Election—Official Vote.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20.—The Evening Bulletin this afternoon publishes the full official vote for Governor in every county of the State, except Pike. In that, it says, we have what is given as the official majority. It then adds: We have examined and corrected the returns carefully from the counties from the tables printed in the various county papers, and believe that the official count at Harrisburg will not vary one hundred from our figures. It places Geary's majority in the State at 17,708. The total vote reaches 600,000.

KING WILLIAM'S ANNEXATION PROCLAMATIONS

NEW YORK, October 21.—The steamship Herman, from Southampton, on the 10th inst., arrived to-day. The Commercial's advises have been anticipated via the cable, but the details of the general news is of an interesting character.

ENGLAND.—The Time's says: Certainly no political movement has for a long time attracted so much attention, as was proved on Monday, by the collecting together of so great a multitude, in order to discuss and support the principles of the manhood suffrage association, which has been established in Leeds.

The London Star says fifteen thousand persons were present. Many speeches were made and resolutions passed. Mr. Bright made a powerful speech.

Lord Cowley will continue Ambassador at Paris for some months.

AUSTRIA.—The Emperor has decided to renounce the title of King of Lombardy and Venetia.

PRUSSIA.—The law incorporating Frankfort and Prussian monarchy was solemnly promulgated. The Prussian flag was hoisted and large crowds assembled at Romorberg. The inhabitants remained quiet. Similar royal patents taking possession of Nassau and Hesse Cassel were solemnly promulgated at Cassel and Wiesbaden.

TURKEY.—Apprehensions are entertained of a rising in Thessoly and Espirus. Reinforcements have been sent to Espirus. Candia is expected to be pacified by October 18th.

The patent annexing Hanover to Prussia was promulgated at October 6th. The patent declares the annexation to be the result of the rightous war in which Prussia was engaged. It demands obedience to Prussian authority and promises protection to Hanoverian subjects. The annexation is declared to be necessary for the reorganization of Germany, and the patent assures the Hanoverians that Prussia's acquisitions are gains to Germany.

The Ex-King of Hanover having fulminated his protest against the annexation, now relieves all his former subjects from their oaths of allegiance to him. The Frankforters protest against being annexed to Prussia. Immediately upon the ratification of the treaty, which is expected directly, the fortresses will be handed over to General Leboeuf, as follows: Pescheria, Martua; Logero, Verona; Bilmanova, Venice, and the Province of Venetia.

The text of the Royal Patent declaring the absorption of Hanover in the Prussian Monarchy, is as follows:

We, William, by the grace of God, King of Prussia, &c., make known to all persons by these presents: After that in consequence of a war commenced by Hanover in league with Austria in the violation of the federal law then in existence, a war successfully maintained by our troops in lawful defence, the countries which heretofore formed the Kingdom of Hanover had been occupied by us, we determined to unite those countries to our monarchy and we have decreed and proclaimed to that effect the law of Sept. 20 of the present year, with the assent of the two Chambers of the monarchy. In consequence, we take possession of these countries by the present patent with all the rights of sovereignty and supreme dominion, and we incorporate with our monarchy, with all their appurtenances and all their rights and claims, the territories which heretofore formed the Kingdom of Hanover, namely: the Principalities of Calenberg, Gottingen, Goubenhagen, Luneburg, Asnabruck, Hildispien, with the town of Goslar and East Friesland, with the district of Harling, the Duchies of Bremen, Verden and Aremberg Meypen, and the Hanoverian portion of the Louenberg, the low county of Lingen, the counties of Hoga, Dieptalz, Hobestein and Bentheim and the district of Hadlin. We add to our royal title the titles belonging to those countries. We order that the Prussian Eagles be placed at the frontiers in token of our sovereignty; that the royal arms which, hitherto, have been displayed be replaced for the future by our royal arms, and that the public seals shall bear the emblem of the Prussian Eagle. We order all inhabitants of the former Kingdom of Hanover, henceforth united to our monarchy, to recognize us from this time as their King and sovereign, and to pay due obedience to our laws, ordinances and commands. We will protect every one in the enjoyment of his private rights which have been justly acquired, and we will retain the officials who will have to make oath of allegiance to us in the enjoyment of their stipends, provided that they shall duly perform their trusts until the Prussian constitution shall come into force. We shall exercise the sole legislative power. We wish to preserve the laws and institutions of the districts which heretofore have formed portions of Hanover so far as they are the expression of legitimate self-government, and that they can be allowed to continue in force without prejudice to the exigencies of public interest resulting from the unity of the State. The Governor General, who has hitherto held office, is charged by us with execution of the act of possession in conformity with these presents. In this manner our will might be done.

VOIC SELCHOW COUNT D'ENLENBURG.

The King of Prussia has also issued the following procmation to his new subjects:

Proclamation to the Inhabitants of the former Kingdom of Hanover:—By the patent which I have this day issued, I have united you, the inhabitants of the country of Hanover, to my subjects, your German neighbors and brothers. Separated henceforth by the decision of war and the reorganization of the common German country from a Princely House to which you have been devotedly and faithfully attached, you now enter into union with a neighboring country, the population of which is allied to you by a community of origin by language and by customs as well as by a community of interests.

If you cannot, without a sentiment of grief, sever ancient connections which had become dear to you, I honour that you and your descendants will display a like fidelity towards me and my house. You will recognize the necessity of what has been done, for, if the fruits of this grave contest and of those sanguinary victories are not to be lost to Germany, the duty of self preservation, as well as the development of the national interests, demands the close and durable union of Hanover with Prussia. As was once said of my father who now rests with God, it is only Germany that gains that which Prussia has acquired. You will take this into your serious consideration. I have confidence in your German frankness and good sense, and I believe that you will swear fidelity towards me, with the same sincerity, with which I receive you among my people. To your industry, your commerce, and your navigation, richer channels will be opened by your union with my states. My gratitude will effectively second your activity. The equal distribution of the public charges, a well ordered administration, carefully considered laws, an equitable and punctual administration of justice, in short all the guarantees which have made Prussia what she has shown herself to be in the late severe struggle, will in future be advantages common to you; your youth will faithfully unite with their brethren of my other States for defence of the country and the Prussian army will joyfully receive the brave Hanoverians to whom a grand page in the annals of German glory is now opened. The clergy will still continue to be the guardians of the paternal faith. To your educational institutions which, during a long course of years, have cultivated German art and science, I promise particular attention; and if the Prussian throne shall, the longer it endures, become more and more recognized and appreciated as the guardian of the liberty and independence of the German country, then your name will be found among those of its best children. You will then bless the moment which has joined you to a greater country. God grant it may be so.

OFFICIAL FROM MEXICO.

Movements of Juarez and Maximilian.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Official news from Chihuahua up to the 24th ult has been received in this city.

President Juarez had appointed General Fivaulla Military Governor of the State of Durango, and ordered him to advance from Parra to the city of Durango with his command. It is expected that Gen. Avanda will have no difficulty in capturing that city. Acting in concert with the forces, as soon as Durango shall have been taken, President Juarez will leave Chihauhua for Monterey.

An official circular from the Department of Foreign Affairs, of the so-called government of Maximilian, dated at the City of Mexico, September 28th, 1866, and signed by the Secretary ad interim, J. N. Deperda concludes with the following paragraph:

Day after to-morrow His Majesty will probably leave the Capital for Cuernevaca with the object of taking some rest and restoring his health in that excellent climate which agrees so well with his temperament.

This official announcement is quite different from the statements of the newspaper correspondent that Maximilian had already left for San Louis, where he was to put himself at the head of the army.

Official news from Vera Cruz to the 5th inst. has been received here.

General Castelman was hourly expected in Peralsus. It was thought that he would stop the embarkation of French troops.

Mexican Affairs—A French Regiment Attacked by Guerrillas—The Eight Hour System in Washington—Proposals for Supplying Indian Goods Invited.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—The eighty-first French regiment of the line, which had arrived at Vera Cruz to embark, and which was ordered back to Orizaba, lost eighty pack mules, with a great deal of its baggage, captured by the guerrillas. A company which was sent to rescue the baggage, was completely cut up by the Liberals at Chiquihaite, the losses being twenty killed and all the others wounded or captured. General Castienan was hourly expected in Vera Cruz. It was thought that he would stop the embarkation of the French troops.

The employing printers of this city have withdrawn their names from their late protest against the eight hour system, and thus the Typographical society has triumphed.

On the first inst. the Commissioner of Indian Affairs invited proposals for a very large supply of Indian goods, such as blankets, cloths, day-goods, and naval wares. The bids were to have been opened to-morrow, but at the suggestion of the new Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who is to enter upon his duties on the first of November, the advertisement has been withdrawn for the reason that the contract should not be made by the retiring, but by the incoming Commissioner.

A Fenian Chief has an Interview With the President—He Complains of American Consuls in Ireland—The President Sympathizes with Ireland.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A Washington special says: Colonel Denis F. Burke, late of the Irish brigade, had an interview with the President this afternoon. Colonel Burke states that he was one of the Irish American officers arrested and imprisoned in Ireland, and spoke in the name of his brother officers lately arrived from Ireland, where they also had been imprisoned. Colonel Burke represented to the President that the American Consuls west of Dublin and eastward of Cork, misrepresented the country, and respectfully urged that better men should be appointed. The President after hearing Colonel Burke's statement, assured him, and asked him to repeat his assurance to the officers, that he would give this whole matter special attention, and anything he could do for those gallant Irishmen he would be most happy to do; that Ireland had always had his warmest sympathies as far as possible in America. Col. Burke stated to a friend that Dr. Young, our Consul at Belfast, acted nobly in behalf of the Irish American prisoners and is the right man to represent his country with prudence, dignity and independence.

The Trouble in Baltimore—Gov. Swann Proposes a Compromise.

BALTIMORE, October 21.—Governor Swann returned late last night from his visit to President Johnson. It is understood that a compromise has been proposed by parties representing the Governor, and that the Commissioners should appoint one of three judges in each ward and one clerk of election from the conservative party. This proposition is now under consideration by the Police Commissioners. The Police Commissioners have been in consultation with their counsel and prominent citizens. It is understood that the Commissioners will not appear in person before the Governor to-morrow, but will, through their counsel, file a response denying the power of the Governor to try the charges, but at the same time declaring their readiness to meet the accusation before any court of competent jurisdiction. The Commissioners have not entertained any proposition looking to any compromise, but declare their determination of resisting any encroachment upon their functions.

Affairs in Georgia.

AUGUSTA, GA., Oct. 18.—At a preliminary examination before the Judge of the County Court, three of the parties arrested for murder of freedmen in Columbia county were discharged, and one John Perrin was committed to await trial upon the charge of murder at the Supreme Court.

The conflict in Henry county between the civil and military authorities has been adjusted.

Gen. Tillson orders the prisoners in Pulaski charged with offences against the freedmen, to be delivered up to the civil courts, the people pledging themselves to protect the freedmen in their rights.

A notice from the executive department of the State states that all the bonds and coupons of Georgia now due and not issued in aid of the late war, can be funded in mortgage bonds of the State, bearing seven per cent. interest from July, 1866. The coupons payable in London or New York can be funded in the above bonds at the national bank of the republic in New York.

Horrible Murder.

HARTFORD, CONN., Oct. 21.—A shocking murder was perpetrated in West Hartford on Saturday night. The victim was a Mr. Julius Thompson, a batchelor, forty years of age, who lived with his mother and sister, on the road leading to Talcott Mountain. Between seven and eight o'clock a young man called at the house and requested Mr. Thompson to assist him as his wagon had broken down. Mr. Thompson went out with the stranger and was found by his street gate, about an hour afterwards, under a tree on the highway, brutally murdered. His skull was broken open with some instrument or club. No arrests as yet have been made by our Hartford police, who are on the track of the supposed murderer. A suspicious character has been seen for several days lounging about the village, and is supposed to be the murderer. Robbing was the probable cause, as Mr. Thompson had some money and bonds in the house.

President Johnson in Baltimore—He Attends the Closing of the Roman Catholic Plenary Council.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson left Washington at seven o'clock this morning in a special car, and is now at the Cathedral attending the closing session of the Roman Catholic Council. His visit is in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholics' Friend Society to be present at the closing session of the Plenary Council.

The President is accompanied by Mrs. Patterson. After attending the Cathedral service he dined at the Eutaw House with Major Wallach, who accompanied him to this city. They returned to Washington at four o'clock.

Closing Exercises of the Catholic Council

BALTIMORE, October 21.—The Catholic Council closed its session to-day. President Johnson was present. The proceedings and decrees are now to be sent to Rome for supervision by the Pope. It is rumored that the Council recommends the appointment of twenty additional Bishops and one Archbishop for each six Dioceses.

Commodore Lanman.

FORTRESS MONROE, VA., Oct. 21.—Commodore Lanman arrived on the Tacony, and will transfer his squadron to Admiral Palmer, thus consolidating the Atlantic coast and Atlantic squadron.

Democratic Congressional Nomination.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 20.—The democracy of the Second Congressional District have nominated A. M. Ide, of Taunton, for Congress.

Iron Wharf at St. Thomas Destroyed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The new iron wharf at St. Thomas was destroyed by the recent gale in the West Indies.

Amusements.

THEATRE.—The success of John Brougham at this house, last week, was well calculated to flatter even an old stager like him, the attendance being imense from the opening night. To-night he appears for the first time here in "O'Donnell's Mission," a new Irish drama, written by himself, and which met with success wherever presented in the East. Of course the house will be crowded.

OPERA HOUSE.—The lovers of the domestic drama will have an opportunity of witnessing that beautiful picture of home life entitled "The Chimney Corner," at this establishment to-night, with C. W. Couldock and his talented daughter in the caste. This is one of Mr. Couldock's best roles, one in fact in which he stands without a rival, and those who wish to form an estimate of his ability should not fail to be present.

Mr. Hess is making extensive preparations for the production of the romantic drama of "The Three Guardsmen," at an early day, in a style of magnificence never before witnessed in the West.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

Lecture.—Miss Anna S. Dickenson—a lady who is gifted with more oratorical ability than any other member of her sex in America—will deliver a lecture this evening in the Academy of Music, Liberty street, under the auspices of the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association. Her subject for this evening will be "Something to Do." We predict a large audience.

Mrs. Swisshelm.—We direct attention to the letter—the first of a series—which appears in another column, from the gifted pen of Mrs. Jane G. Swisshelm. This lady, who has long enjoyed a national reputation as a free, easy and vigorous writer and sound thinker, means to spend the coming winter at her old home near Wilkinsburg. We bespeak for her letter a careful perusal.

A Revolting Outrage—The Alleged Perpetrator in Custody.

A few days since a man accompanied by his two daughters aged respectively nine and eleven years old, came to this city from Illinois on their way to Bridewell, New York, but being in destitute circumstances, he put up at the Meanor Hotel, on the corner of Cecils alley and Penn street, to await an expected remittance from their friends in the east. On Saturday evening the little girls were sent to sleep in a chamber in the rear of the house, while their father went up to Market street, for the purpose of hunting up an old acquaintance, whom he expected would tender him some assistance. In his absence an old man named Edward Coyle, a boarder at the hotel, is said to have entered the sleeping apartment of the little ones and outraged the person of the older one in a shocking manner, she being almost insensible when her parents returned. Coyle's hat was found in the chamber and suspicion being thus directed to him, he was arrested and brought to the tombs, where the little girl subsequently identified him as the perpetrator of the hellish deed. Coyle, who has just attained his sixty-fifth year, has been committed to jail to await a hearing at Alderman Strain's office, this morning. The girl is under the care of Dr. George L. M'Cook, who has strong hopes of her recovery, although at present she is in a very critical condition.

Money Found.

James Jones, who was mentioned in our last issue as having been robbed of two hundred dollars in a house of ill repute kept by Catharine Hamilton, on Water street, had his money restored to him yesterday in this wise. Promising to withdraw all prosecution if Mrs. Hamilton would give him his money she finally consented, and told him to go to her house where he would find a friend of her rejoicing in the concise cognomen of "Jack," who would give him the missing property. In company with a policeman Jones proceeded to Catharine's residence, where he met the person of whom he was in quest. He made known his mission to Jack, who, without further ceremony, told them to follow him. They did so, going up Wood street to Liberty, from thence down Hand to the Allegheny wharf, where Jack, with the assistance of his new found companions, turned over a huge circular stone and revealed the missing wallet with every thing in it, just as it was when it so mysteriously left the possession of its loyal owner. Faithful to his promise, Jones withdrew the charge against Mrs. Hamilton and her comrade, Miss Kilgore, and they were discharged from custody. Jones left for his home, in Sunfish, Ohio, last evening, fully satisfied with his experience of city life.

Attempted Rape.

Mary Mulholland appeared before Alderman Taylor, on Saturday, and made oath against William Beebe for assault and battery with an intent to commit a rape. The prosecutrix, who resides in Collins township, states that she was returning to her home in East Liberty late on Friday evening, having been on a visit to some friends near Wilkinsburg during the day, and when within a short distance of Wilkinsburg, she was accosted by young Beebe, who invited her to go with him to a store in East Liberty for the purpose of procuring some refreshment. She declined, saying she wanted to go home immediately, as she had already been too long away. After some further conversation Beebe threw his arms around her and attempted to accomplish his base designs. Her cries for assistance he attempted to hush by stuffing her shawl in to her mouth. After a protracted struggle she broke away from his hold and fled down the lane, in which the affair occurred, to the railroad track, where a couple of men were standing. Miss Mulholland is quite young, not more than seventeen, and rather prepossessing in personal appearance. She had been intimately acquainted with her assailant for several months, he having at one time showed a disposition to court her. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the accused.

A Sunday Battle.

The quiet of the holy Sabbath was broken last evening by Patrick Riley, an occupant of Healey's court, on Pennsylvania avenue, in the Third ward, attempting to maltreat a couple of unprotected females who came to spend the evening in social intercourse with his wife. The screams of the women attracted the attention of a posse of the Mayor's police, who invaded the sanctity of Patrick's house and attempted to seize him. But, strange as it may appear, the women who had been thus rescued from the violence of the excited Milesian, turned all their pent-up rage on the guardians of the public peace, and for a time the policemen got the worst of the fray. Reinforcements of police arriving just at the time when their chief was about sounding a retreat, the tide of battle turned, and in a few moments Patrick and his feminine supporters were disarmed and he borne off to the tombs.

Cowardly Assault.

One of the most dastardly, unprovoked assaults that it has been our province to record, for some time, came to our knowledge yesterday. The facts are as follows: A well-known brick merchant named Matthew Coward, doing business on Boyd's Hill, in the Eighth ward, was returning from Allegheny City, with his wife, on Saturday night, between eight and nine o'clock. While passing along Federal street, near the Diamond weigh house, some person concealed behind the building, threw a piece of sharp iron at the pair, which struck Mr. Coward in the right eye, injuring the optic so materially, that it is thought he will lose that member. No clue can be obtained as to who the ruffian is, nor what motive could have impelled him to such a cowardly and treacherous act.

Captured.—On the 6th of February last William Coventry shot a man named Swregen at a boarding house on Water street, between Grant and Ross. Coventry made good his escape at the time, and after a long period of intense suffering Swregen recovered. Coventry succeeded in eluding the vigilance of the police until Saturday when he was arrested by a couple of the Mayor's force on board of the steamer Rob Roy laying at the Monongahela wharf. He was committed to jail in default of $1,000 bail for a hearing to-day at ten o'clock.

Church-door Loungers.—Our attention has been called to a class of foppish individuals, whom some silly folks take for fashionable young gentlemen, who make a practice of lounging about church doors on Sundays during the hour of worship. They are certainly no ornament to the entrance of the house of God and should be heartily ashamed of themselves.

Cruelty to an Infant.—Anna Lacey was before Alderman Humbert on Saturday, charged with having cruelly beaten and abused a little infant, daughter of Mrs. Jane Wickman, residing on Carson street, in the borough of Birmingham. Anna was employed as a domestic in the household of the prosecutrix. She was held in $300 to answer the charge at Court.

Singular Lady.—A lady coming aboard of one of the Birmingham railway cars, on Saturday, was proffered a seat by a gallant young man. She refused at first to accept the seat as she did not want to deprive him of it, and finally accepted it and earnestly thanked the gentleman for his kindness. Such ladies are not met with every day in a railway car.

To Tobacco Chewers.—At a post mortem examination held upon the body of a young man who died from the effects of falling through a trap door, in this city, a few days ago, a huge ball of tobacco particles was found secreted in his stomach. He was a habitual chewer of the weed.

Large Business.—Under the excellent management of the Birmingham Passenger Railway that line is doing a large and profitable business. It is a pleasure to ride upon its cars with the gentlemanly conductors who have charge of them.

Can't be Beat.—Our printer friend, Mr. Alexander Hunter, on Saturday sent us the largest apple we have ever had the luck to receive. We will put it against any thing in the line grown in these quarters.

Arrested.—A man named William Chambers has been arrested for placing obstructions on the Oil Creek Railroad about one month since.

Good Times.—Our merchants are experiencing very brisk times just now, the fall trade having commenced in right good earnest.

Fire.—The McCoy House, Titusville, was destroyed by fire last week. Loss $10,000, partly insured.

The Railroad Accident near Union—Additional Particulars—Names and Condition of the Injured—Suspicion of a Deliberate Plan for Wholesale Murder and Robbery.

From the Titusville Herald we clip the following additional particulars concerning the recent fearful accident at Union, Pa., on the Atlantic and Great Western Railway, last week:

Of the forty or more wounded passengers who were brought to the Boston House for medical treatment, the greater part were enabled to leave for their respective destinations on Thursday morning. Only thirteen or fifteen remain. No deaths have yet occurred, but several of the victims are still in a precarious state. Among them are Mrs. Elizabeth Rivers, of Cincinnati, severely injured in spine and from a fractured rib. She was accompanied by her five little children, the eldest a boy of nine years. None of them were so severely injured as the mother, but all their faces are bruised and swollen. Mrs. Rivers' case is considered hopeful, and the prospect of her recovery is very favorable, notwithstanding she has executed her will for the disposal of her property.

Mr. Miner, of Titusville, is here attending his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boughton, of New York, who were on their way to Titusville, on the ill-fated train, and sustained severe injuries. Mr. B. was cut on the back of his head, and his spine was also injured. His wife had several severe contusions of the head, and remained for a long time insensible. It is hoped they may be able to leave Titusville this evening. Mr. Boughton is a clergyman, and agent for the Seamen's Friend Society. He was returning from his labors in the West.

Mrs. Mary L. Durphy, a widow lady from Rochester, and matron in the Penitentiary there, is suffering from two broken ribs, and Mr. W. J. Durant, of New York, is confined injury.

The young man whose dead body was found beneath the wreck, has been identified as C. E. Matthews, a jeweler, of Elmira, New York, and an officer of Union Lodge, 95, F. A. M.

Conductor White, the engineer, Howe, and the fireman, all shockingly injured, were removed to Meadville, and at last accounts were alive. The fireman was found inextricably fast with the engine. He was severely burned, and but for the timely discovery and relief from his perilous position would soon have been burned to death.

The Railroad Company used every exertion to contribute to the relief and comfort of the sufferers. They were removed to the Boston House, where Mr. E. A. Davis, the energetic Superintendent, provided amply for their accommodation, and the Company surgeons, Drs. Stubbs and Spratt, rendered prompt professional attention. The citizens of Corry, and particularly the ladies, manifested a praiseworthy sympathy for the unfortunate passengers, and were unremitting in their efforts to contribute to their comfort.

The following is a list of the sufferers. Except those whose injuries are not described, they are not considered serious:

Miss Frank Howard, Springfield, Mass.; Jacob Williams, Corry; J. Wilkenson, Cattaraugus county, N. Y.; David Seaman, New York; H. H. Pulman, Reno, Pa.; Martin Babcock, fracture of the arm near the shoulder, cut and bruised, Frewsburg, N. Y.; Edward L. Hyde, both shoulders injured, Masonville, Pa., John Fettyplace Jamestown, N. Y.; John Trewly, cut in the spine; Mrs. T. left leg bruised, three children unhurt, Hillville, Pa., Rev. Mr. Broughton and wife, above described; Mrs. Rivers and children, above described; Mrs. Murphy, ditto; A. L. Smith and wife, Meadville, both severely burned, child unhurt; Louisa Rhymer, Highland, Pa.; C. H. Lathrop, Vincennes, severe; John L. House and wife, Clarkstown, N. Y.; Wm. Anderson, Kenzua, Pa.; A. Wheelock, Portland N. Y.; Dr. Beard, Springville, Ind.; F. E. Kellogg and lady, California; Dr. N. P. Bailey, Stanford; C. K. Dougherty, Corry; Mary M'Clure and child, Duane county, Ill., Thomas L. Cullough, Paymaster U. S. Navy; G. H. Smith and wife, Cuba, N. Y.; G. H. Casshell, Corry, severe; T. B. James, Canisteo; Mrs. S. C. Vellett, badly, Medlain Co., O.; Lieut. Carroll, 14th U. S. Infantry, N. Y.; P. A. Hovey, Greenville, Pa.; Asa Brasher, Nashville; John Newton, Memphis; Hannah Mulrooney and child, Meadville; Mrs. Reeves, badly, internally; W. F. Rowe, Huntingdon, Pa.; Joseph and Mary Drake, Salamanca; S. V. R. Sherwood, A. & G. W. R. R.; Miss Bell, Cincinnati; W. D. Miller, Corry; besides a large number taken to Meadville.

Of the one hundred passengers on the ill-fated train, there were but two that escaped unharmed. There seems to be little room for doubt that this terrible disaster was deliberately planned and executed for the purpose of robbing the victims. A rail had been removed from the inside of the curve, and the train thus precipitated down an embankment of forty feet. The cars rolled twice over in this descent, and but for a line of beeches and maples bordering the bank of French creek, nothing could have prevented the entire train and its living contents from being hurled into the water. As it was, the train was literally knocked into splinters—or, to use the more forcible expression of a somewhat excited passenger, "it was ground to powder—it was pulverised." Excepting the wheels, trucks and iron-work of the coaches, there is nothing that can be used for any purpose but fuel, and while the victims of this fiendish outrage were lying unconscious amid the debris, or painfully endeavoring to extricate their bodies from the appalling wreck, they were robbed and plundered by men who had apparently come to their assistance. There is no doubt about this. A lady passenger testifies that she saw a man deliberately search the pockets of another who was lying insensible. Another lady says that on regaining her senses, she discovered that her ear-rings, a diamond pin, and her finger-rings had all been taken. The idea that such a performance was the result of accident is absurd.

The railroad company have offered a reward of $2,000 for the detection of any party connected in this cold-blooded atrocity. It is stated that two arrests have been made of persons suspected of complicity in the act.

The Dry Goods House of J. W. Barker & Co., 59 Market street.

Among the numerous houses in the wholesale and retail dry goods business in this city none stand higher than that of J. W. Barker & Co., No. 59 Market street, as a place to buy goods at the most reasonable prices. This enterprising firm have just received an immense stock of fall and winter fabrics from headquarters in the East, consisting of heavy silks and cotton velvets, cloths, cassimeres, merinos, delaines, calicos and flannels, with a choice assortment of ladies' furnishing goods and trimmings, particularly suited to the present season. The benefit that will accrue to buyers by purchasing their goods at Barker's is this: that their stock being so large and varied, comprising every shade and quality of material in the market, it will give the purchaser a large field of choice. In addition to their salesroom, they have large cloak-rooms, where the most fashionable cloaks and mantillas are made to order at the shortest possible notice. The great success of the firm is attributable to the fact that while they keep nothing but first-class goods, and courteous salesmen, their prices are so very low as to win for 59 Market street a popularity second to none in the city. Certainly the commercial figures of no other retail dry goods establishment exceed theirs, while the unusual advantages the firm possess of purchasing goods enables them to sell at prices which are fully as cheap as those offered by eastern competition. The bargains which are now being offered are rare and indictive, and the economical lady shopper should call and examine the fabrics offered for sale and compare prices. So also will the country merchant, city dealer and all who buy to sell again, consult their own interests by favoring this house with a share of their patronage. No charge is made for showing goods, and whether desirous of purchasing or not, persons who visit 59 Market street will have a certainty of receiving the best of attention from the accommodating salesmen in attendance.

Murderous Assault on a Police Officer.

A well-known character named John Patch, was arrested late on Saturday and lodged in the tombs, charged with perpetrating a felonious assault and battery on the person of Hamilton Lowe, one of the night police. The assault took place on Fulton street, in the Sixth ward, where Patch with a number of drunken comrades, were engaged in a street brawl. Lowe attempted to preserve the public peace and drive the rowdies off, when he was seized by Patch, who wrenched his mace form his grasp, and struck him several severe blows over the head and face, inflicting three ugly gashes, from which the blood flowed profusely over his person. Lowe fell to the ground under the repeated blows, and his assailant then endeavored to effect his escape by running up a narrow alley, leading to Crawford street, but ere he had got far from the spot, he was arrested by two of the watchmen who had been attracted to the spot by the confusion. Lowe was taken to his home, where his injuries were attended to by Dr. George L. McCook. His wounds though extremely painful, are not serious.

A Moral City.—Pittsburgh on Sunday is, without exception, the most moral city in the Union. A drunken man staggering upon the streets is rarely seen, while the absence of brawls and fights is observable by all strangers in our midst. We believe that a single drop of liquor cannot be obtained inside of city limits on the Sabbath, the taverns and saloons keeping closed doors to perfection. For such a condition of affairs it is stated that Mayor McCarthy has forfeited his chances for re-election, but as he has not worked for personal advancement in the matter of placing an embargo upon rum selling, his conscience as clear and he has won for himself the golden opinions of the better classes of the community.

Gave Bail.—Catherine Adams sued a young damsel named Kitty Clarey before Alderman Taylor for calling her opprobious names and threatening to rob her cranium of its hirsute adornment. Kitty was arrested on Saturday afternoon on her way to one of the matinees and brought before the magistrate who forced her to give bail in the sum of $500 to keep the peace for one year from date. She furnished the requisite security and went on her way. She will doubtless leave the ambrosial locks of Catherine float unthreatened hereafter.

The Great Arabian Nights Entertainment.

From all we have heard and read of this great exhibition, which opens at Masonic Hall to-morrow evening, we judge it will take our citizens by storm. In fact, we predict a greater rush to witness this work of art than anything that has yet been brought to our city. The press, the clergy, and the people everywhere pronounce it to be one of the finest exhibitions ever witnessed, and almost supernatural in its character; illustrating, as it does, the most charming imaginative subject in the world. Those wonderful fictions, the conception of which is so brilliant, and the imagination so rich and varied,—which have have been the delight of our infancy, and which, at a more advanced age, we can never read without feeling their enchantment anew,—possess a charm alike for youth and age, who will be sure to go by thousands to witness these surprising tableaux.

We clip the following notice of the exhibition from the London Morning Chronicle. It was written by the celebrated Charles Dickens, the great novelist, while the exhibition was in London:

"Entering into the spirit of that immortal production which is so closely entwined with our fondest memories, the artist appears to have gathered inspiration and has given noble and magnificent expression to those bright conceptions, which, excepting the sacred writings, are without an equal. It was, indeed, a novel idea to bring before the eye the splendors which have hitherto existed only in imagination, and by artistic effect to aid the imagination in comprehending the full grandeur and magnificence of the subject. Satisfaction and enthusiastic admiration are very freely expressed on all sides at the manner in which the artist has executed the difficult task of illustrating a subject that deals entirely with the realms of imagination.

While looking on these scenes we are carried away into the regions of fancy, and, indeed, forget the real world around us; for the tableaux are, one and all, so intensely interesting that they completely absorb the mind, connected as they are, with conceptions and fancies which fill the mind with wonder, awe and amazement; and the more we have looked upon the matchless perfection of this master-work of art, during its extraordinary tide of success in our metropolis, the more its wondrous merits have grown upon our admiration."

This is very high endorsement from a man like Charles Dickens, who himself dealing in matters of fancy and imagination, is entirely competent to give an opinion upon a work of this kind. We greatly rejoice that our citizens will have an opportunity of witnessing this great exhibition, and our only regret is that we have no hall in our city large enough to accommodate all who will wish to see it during the short time the exhibition will remain in our midst.

Fatal Accident.—A little girl named Kennedy fell off a porch attached to the dwelling of her parents on Gay alley, in the Second ward, Allegheny, Saturday night, and dashed her brains out on the pavement beneath. She survived the accident but a few hours.

HENRY WARD BEECHER.

In the Academy of Music recently, Mr. BEECHER explained why, while concurring substantially in the President's Policy of Reconstruction, he feels it to be his duty to stand by the Republican Party, and by the Constitutional Amendment proposed and insisted on by Congress. His main argument was that political parties are to be judged not so much by particular measures as by the spirit which pervades them, and the general scope of their movements; that there are only the democratic and republican parties to choose between; that the democratic party, by a long course of bad conduct, has forfeited the confidence of patriots and friends of liberty, while the republican party, whatever may have been its blunders and short-comings, has been animated by just sentiments, and has accomplished, and is accomplishing a vast amount of good; and hence, notwithstanding his differences with the republican party, he prefers its success unmeasurably to that of its opponent. This is well said. The republican party exists, not because its members perfectly agree as to all plans and measures, but because they agree in general spirit, and in the main ends to be accomplished. But what Mr. BEECHER says on this head was just as true when he was favoring the Cleveland Convention, which was a sort of branch of or tender to the democratic party, as it is now. It was not so much the fact that Mr. BEECHER had ideas of his own, variant to a certain degree from those held by the body of republicans, that humiliated his friend, as that hallowed those ideas to so sway him as to give his moral support to a party that had proved false to all professions of regard for impartial liberty, and that, in addition, was deeply implicated in a causeless and monstrous rebellion. However short he has come of demonstrating his consistency, we are glad he finally perceives the rule of safety and is prepared henceforth to pursue it.

The same incoherence pervades all that Mr. BEECHER says on this important head. He would magnanimously restore the eleven revolted States without exacting any conditions whatever, and, at the same time he would press the Constitutional Amendment, now pending, as just in itself, and as affording a solid basis for future harmony. By what sort or amount of persuasion he expects to induce the eleven seceding States to ratify the Constitutional Amendment, after having been unconditionally restored, he does not state, and it is difficult to conjecture. That the leaders of the rebellion, for illustration, should voluntarily consent to disfranchise themselves, and through no other motive than to gratify their conquerors, is altogether improbable.

Then, again, Mr. BEECHER affirms most stoutly the right of Congress to prescribe terms, as the only law-making power in the nation. In view of this admission his support of the President in his efforts to override and supplant Congress, appears all the more remarkable. If Congress was armed, as he admits, with complete and exclusive authority; if its requirements are so beneficent as to compel his commendation, it seems unaccountable that Mr. BEECHER should have been on the side of the President, for unconditional restoration, and against Congress and the republican party.

That Mr. BEECHER did the republican interest great harm is undeniable. Its recent successes were achieved not only without his influence, but against it. Still, we are not disposed to deal harshly with him. We remember his greatness and his goodness. That he erred is manifest. But most deeply has he expiated his mistake.

NEW YORK.

The October elections imparted fresh animation to the canvass in New York, and both parties are putting forth their best endeavors. The Democrats profess ability to defeat the Republican State ticket, headed by REUBEN E. FENTON for Governor. These professions, so far as they have any apparent basis, seem to rest upon the increased vote anticipated in and near the city of New York. This increase is expected mainly from two sources. First, the naturalization of unprecedented numbers of foreigners who were restrained from applying for citizenship during the war by fear of the draft or sympathy with the rebel side. Second, the domiciliization of many rebels, drawn thither since the close of the war for purposes of business, but principally to influence Southern trade. Fabulous numbers have been assigned to this latter class. Still, the Republicans are confident they will at least hold their own on the general vote. The Johnsonian defection amounts to as little there as it did in Pennsylvania. As the President was here sold by not a few of his professed followers, he will now be more generally deceived there. Besides, the losses occasioned by patronage will be more than compensated by accessions from the Democratic ranks of men who have hesitated long and can go no farther with their old associates. Then, a large majority of young men, voting for the first time, will go with the Republicans. Educated under the discipline of the war, they lean instinctively to the Republican side. This was noticed in Pennsylvania, and doubtless saved the Republicans the State. In some precincts, every man who voted on age, declared himself a Republican. Instances of this sort were not wanting even in Democratic counties. In New York the same general causes have operated, and will produce like results.

In the Congressional delegation the Republicans have not simply to hold their own, but to make some gains. In all the metropolitan districts, two years ago, there were triangular contests which somewhat perplex present calculations. Indeed, in the Sixth district there were four candidates. Mr. H. J. RAYMOND was elected, and commonly, in the House, talked for the Democrats and voted with the Republicans. The latter did not need his aid and the former do not seem to have profited either by his elocution or logic. What the result will be in the district this year it is not safe to predict. As Mr. RAYMOND has met the common fate of trimmers in finding nobody willing to tie to him, he has prudently declined to be a candidate.

In the 11th district, at the last trial, Mr. WINFIELD, Democrat, succeeded by a majority of 240 votes over Mr. MURRAY, Republican. General C. H. VAN WYCK, who formerly represented the district, is now the Republican candidate, and a strong degree of assurance is felt that he will be elected.

In the 13th district, in 1864, Mr. GATES, Republican, was beaten by HUBBELL, Democrat, by 1,545 votes. But last year, in the same counties, CHAMBERS, Democrat, for State Senator, had only 84 majority over PIERCE, Republican. Mr. THOMAS CORNELL is now the Republican candidate for Congress, and against a competitor of less popularity than HUBBELL. But this is hardly a fair representation of the case; for CHAMBERS ran behind the Democratic State ticket about 600 votes, giving Cornell a majority of 700 to overcome.

On the whole, we shall be glad if the Republicans hold their own.

GETTING READY.

That General SHERMAN should give in his adhesion to the President's "policy" will surprise no one who remembers the extraordinary terms of surrender he offered to the rebel General JOHNSTON, and which were promptly and indignantly set aside by Secretary STANTON. Had he been permitted to have his way on that occasion, he would have sent the last of the rebel armies to their homes with all the honors of war, bearing their arms with them, which they were to deliver up, not to the rightful and conquering government, but to the yet existing authorities of the Confederate States.

That such a man should be in sympathy with the President and the rebels in their present controversy with Congress and the country, is only what might be expected; and if that were all it would be a matter of very little consequence. But that such a man should be put in charge of the War Department, and thus be made the official superior of General GRANT himself, is a contingency well calculated to arouse the country. We do not say to alarm it; for after what we have seen during the past five years, and especially during the current month, we cannot doubt its ability to grapple with such a conspiracy as these sinister arrangements indicate. The combination of two unscrupulous and ambitious men—one mad enough and the other bold enough to attempt anything—armed with the two-edged sword of the government, its civil and military power, and backed, as they are, by the rebels and their sympathizers, would in any other nation than this be a power which nothing could resist.

Whether the President meditates a coup d' etat, in the event of Congress calling him to account for the manner in which he has executed the laws and discharged his official duties, and for his usurpations of the law-making power, is to be seen. But he is manifestly getting ready for something. Perhaps he flatters himself that, with SHERMAN as his war minister, and and his army (for he thinks everything is his) well in hand, that Congress will not dare to interfere with him. But this Congress trusted in the people once, and were not disappointed; and they will do so again. The people will expect their representatives to do their duty; and if they need any help they have only to call as LINCOLN did.

Governor SWANN, of Maryland, seems to be trying a small experiment of the same kind, and if that should prove a success, very likely ANDREW JOHNSON will attempt to set Congress aside and take the entire Government into his own hands.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM JANE G. SWISSHELM.

EDITORS OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, GENTLEMEN:—It is doubtful if any Pittsburgh paper is sufficiently Radical to grant me a hearing on the present state of our country, but I cannot be silent and see her deadly peril, and, in my native city, where I spent fifteen years laboring, in season and out of season, to avert the calamity of a war for the overthrow of slavery, I must try to give the note of warning. If any community can be aroused in time to take any effective steps to meet the coming crisis, it ought to be that which was first to take note of the approaching storm, of the Great Rebellion, and which so promptly took measures to defend the Constitution against itself, by unconstitutionally refusing to permit their arsenal to be robbed for the purpose of overthrowing the Constitution.

General Neal Dow in his letter on the President's coup d' etat, tells how many thousand loyal soldiers will camp on the squares in Washington, and what a nice time they are going to have; yet he does not say just how they are to get here. He talks as though it would be quite a pleasant picnic excursion; and a McClellan grand review. This is the common view taken by loyal men. Will our statesman, philosophers and soldiers answer to themselves this one little question.

Gentlemen, how are you to get to Washington?

People appear to forget that the capital of this great, free government is away down in Dixie; that it is forty miles beyond Baltimore, on the direct route to no place; that, in time of peace, it is compelled to pay tribute to Maryland; and, in time of war, must conquer the right of way, across the State, at the point of the bayonet. They overlook the fact that every approach to the city of the wilderness, and the city herself, has been thoroughly fortified by Yankee brain and muscle, and handed over to the enemy by Yankee magnanimity; that the madman who, by the wrath of God and folly of the Republican party, now holds the capital of this nation, her defences, her arches, her prestige with foreign powers, her treasury, and the command of her army and navy, is one who, from the first, has only differed with his colleague, Jefferson Davis, as to the best means of whipping the Yankees. Davis thought it would be easier to whip them if he got on the outside of the Union. Johnson thought the best battle-ground lay on the inside. The good-humored Yankees furnished Jefferson with forts munitions of war and rations, then held him up with his right hand, and boxed his ears with the left until the Great Outsider surrendered, after first seeing his colleague in the position to try his plan of warfare. The over-magnanimous Jonathan furnishes the Big I with every possible facility for trying his way of whipping Yankees, does his voting, turns his tobacco in his cheek, whittles his stick, and waits to see what will come of it.

Was the North justifiable in fighting Davis under all the self-imposed disadvantages, which prolonged the war for years, and cost the lives of more than a hundred thousand loyal men, and a thousand millions of treasure? Will she be justifiable now, in entering on the second phase of this traitor war, with a similar recklessness of expenditure? Has not Mr. Johnson given sufficient notice of his policy, or did ever conspirator more openly prosecute his plans? His purpose to conquer the free North; to turn it out of the Union; and put the Government into the hands of traitors lately in arms to overthrow it, could not well be more clearly and pertinaciously expressed than by his words, since Feb. 21st, 1866, and his works since Nov. 8th, 1864. Steady, as the needle to the pole, has been the entire line of his actions, since the day of his election as Vice-President, and he is no more in the interest and confidence of the leaders of the rebellion, to-day, than he was when the assassin's bullet placed him in position to do this work.

When he threw off the mask, on the 22d of February, he already had the two hundred thousand paroled rebel soldiers reorganized, arms within their reach, or in their hands; and then more defiant, and in better condition to fight, than at any time for the three years previous. Now, the Northern people are waiting for him to commit an overt act! Suppose that Davis' subtle intellect is guiding the brute force of Johnson's stolid belief in himself, and that seeing the uselessness, or rather danger, of his wastful harangues, he keeps quiet until Congress meets; and a large proportion of our civil and military leaders are congregated in Washington; that he then seizes the city, shoots Stanton and Grant, for disobeying orders, hangs all the Republican members of Congress, as traitors, places Beauregard in command of the defences of the city, Lee at the head of the army, for restoring the Union; makes Davis, virtually, Secretary of War, and holds, as hostages, all the loyal people found in the Capitol who may be thought of more value for this purpose than for execution.

If something like this should be the outline of his "overt-act," and he should have secret organizations in our principal cities to strike simultaneously and occupy loyal men, even a short time, in restoring order at home; and Governor Swan should be at all active in barricading Baltimore and Annapolis, General Dow's Northern soldiers would have warm work before they should camp on Capitol Hill.

Thirty years ago I was voted insane for saying that God could not be just and permit this nation to escape a fearful and bloody retribution for the crime of slavery, and I would God it were anything but an overwhelming condition of truth, drawn from facts and their inevitable logical conclusions, which makes me certain to-day that the above is an outline of Mr. Johnson's purpose, and that he will be permitted to carry them out far enough to scourge this nation fearfully, for her breach of faith to her faithful allies, for the tens of thousands of murders and outrages committed upon them in the past eighteen months; and our national repudiation of the claims of justice under a maudlin pretense of mercy alien to every law of christianity, which ever requires repentance as essential to pardon.

Many people, in looking on the dark prospect before us, throw aside responsibility with the comfortable thought that Providence is attending to the nation, and we can look after our own private affairs. Providence works by means, and those who trust God, intelligently, must be certain of being on His side, and in the day of battle, keep their powder dry.

When this government was organized, our fathers, at the bidding of French infidelity, deliberately excluded from the Constitution all acknowledgment of the existence and authority of God. They even erased His name from the oath of office required by our chief magistrate, and to-day, for anything which appears in our fundamental law, the God of this nation may be a crocodile. To expect the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, the Saviour into whose hands all judgment is committed, to work miracles in defence of such a government, is a sublime height of piety difficult to attain. True, we have occasionally had a fast day, and got a little drunker than usual, but this lays the Deity under no special obligation to take care of us, while our sins, and His justice, oblige him to visit our iniquities upon us; so that if "every drop of blood drawn by the lash shall be repaid by a drop drawn by the sword," so, that if all the wealth heaped up by the laborers who have reaped down our harvest, and whose wages, by us, have been kept back, shall be swept away in our common ruin, we can only say that "the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether." If we would only get on the Lord's side, act on the principle that He "has made of our blood all nations of men to dwell upon the face of the earth;" and learn to render unto all men that which is just and equal, we might confidently rely on His right arm; but I cannot see this government deserves anything, at His hand, but utter destruction. He will ultimately establish a government, in this country, which shall be the neucleus of the world's Republican civilization, in that it shall acknowledge Christ as "King of Kings and Lord of Lords," but He must first "thoroughly purge His floor" and it appears now as if we would resign our national sins to no less powerful agents than fire or sword.

JANE G. SWISSHELM.

THE GREAT ACCLIMATING TONIC—Wherever HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the celebrated American preventive of Climate Diseases, have been introduced into unhealthy regions, their effects in sustaining the health, vigor and animal spirits of those whose pursuits subjected them to extraordinary risks from exposure and privation, have been wonderful. In the Army the superiority of this article over every other invigorating and alterative medicine has become so manifest where used, that it is relied upon, exclusively, as a protection against Billous Fever, Fever and Ague, and Bowel complaints of every kind. The soldiers say it is the ONLY stimulant which produces and keeps up a healthy habit of body in unwholesome locations. For the unacclimated pioneer and settler it is the most reliable of all safeguards against sickness. Throughout the United States it is considered the most healthful and agreeable of all tonics, and altogether unequaled as a remedy for Dyspepsia. The medicinal ingredients are all vegetable, and are held in solution by the most wholesome stimulant known—the Essence of Rye.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS

Are manufactured at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and no less than 50,000 dozen bottles are sold annually by druggists.

C. C. SEELY'S

CHOLERA PREVENTIVE.

FOR REGULATING THE BOWELS, destroying Acidity in the Stomach, creating a healthy action of the Liver, assisting in the Secretion of Healthy Bile, giving Regularity to the Bowels, and assisting the System to a Healthy state, the PREVENTIVE is unsurpassed. It has been tried in thousands of instances, and has never been known to fail where the directions were strictly followed.

At this time, when we know not at what moment the fell destroyer may be upon us, nothing should be left undone that can be done to give the system a healthy action, and it is with a view to bring about this great disideratum, which of itself is the strongest bulwark against the attacks of cholera, that this medicine is offered to an intelligent public. Its action in cases of Diarrhea is magical. One bottle of the Preventive serves to check the complaint—two seldom required.

Seely's Cholera Preventive

Is the result of many years study and labor. The object of the proprietor in the first place was to produce a medicine that would assist digestion and relieve him from the terrible sufferings of Dyspepsia. Having attained this great end, he found that the mixture was an admirable regulator, and that in cases of diarrhea its action was wonderful. Incipient Diarrhea was cured by a single bottle, and even chronic cases were compelled to succomb to the powerful efficacy of this medicine.

Having by actual experiment in his own case, and that of his family, satisfied himself of its curative powers, he offers it to the public in full confidence that it will effect all that he claims for it.

Unlike the numberless quack nostrums that are foisted upon a too credulous public, it is not a universal cure-all, but is intended for a remedy, and is only efficacious in cases of Incipient Cholera, Diarrhea, Dyspepsia, or kindred ills, arising for the most part from imperfect digestion.

In full confidence of its restorative powers, it is now offered to the public.

No household should be without a supply of it.

Steamboats, Hotels and Travellers should always have it on hand.

It is easy to take, simple in its nature, and instantaneous in its effects.

Sold by all respectable druggists and country storekeepers. au27:128M

THE NEW

Spring and Summer Medicine.

FLUID EXTRACT

SARSAPARILLA,

COMBINED WITH

Iodide of Lime,

PREPARED FOR

G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,

BY

James R. Nichols & Co.

MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,

MANUFACTURERS OF THE

ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK

WITH

Protoxide of Iron,

Which has become so favorably known as a

Tonic and Restorative,

By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Pale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to take the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

In the Spring of the Year, and during the Warm Weather,

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

The Cholera.

It is not conceded by all of the medical fraternity of this city that we have had in Pittsburgh any genuine Asiatic cholera this season. Perhaps the dissenters from the common belief may be correct in their views, but whatever name may be given the disease which has so suddenly carried away a number of our people during the past month, it certainly is a very fair counterfeit of the genuine scourge. It has not yet appeared in an epidemic form, nor has the mortality been so great as to cause any unusual alarm or excitement, still its appearance in its mildest character is enough to put us all upon our guard against its encroachments. The least neglect of sanitary precautions or departure from accustomed habits of life, at this particular time, subjects a person to the disease which exists to just such an extent in our midst as to make us feel careful. Intemperance above all things should be avoided, as there is no more certain way of inviting an attack upon our systems from the disease, than by an over indulgence at the flowing bowl. In all countries where the epidemic has raged in its most violent form, the statistics show that the greatest mortality has existed amongst the drinking classes. Keep sober gentlemen, and you may escape the cholera yourselves and not be the occasion of introducing it into your families and the general community.

More Concerning the Galion Murder.

The Columbus Journal says: We have learned the following additional particulars in regard to the murder of Mr. D. E. Smith, of this city at Galion, on Tuesday night. Mr. Smith had been formerly agent of the Home Insurance Company of this city, stationed at Galion, and had become well acquainted with many of the residents, among them the young lady upon whom he called just previous to the murderous assault upon him. Mr. Smith's friends state that the young lady was not engaged to Mr. Fitch, the murderer, but that he was a rejected lover, hence his hatred of Mr. Smith.

The citizens of Galion, in caring for the remains, and in their efforts to bring to justice the murderer, did all that could be done under the circumstances, and have the thanks of Mr. Smith's friends in this city.

The officers of the Home Company were telegraphed immediately of the death of Mr. Smith, and Mr. Sweetman, Assistant Secretary of the company, on Wednesday repaired to Galion, returning with the remains on Wednesday night. The body was taken to the residence of Mr. A. H. Hanley, secretary of the company. It was placed yesterday in the vault of the cemetery to await the arrival of the parents of the deceased, who have been telegraphed and are now on their way to this city.

Pittsburgh Burglars.

The Harrisburg Telegraph says: Yesterday morning, about eight o'clock, as officer Wright was passing along Front street, he observed two men—suspicious looking characters—lying in one of the parks, and pretending to be asleep. They were arrested and taken to the Mayor's office, where a search was instituted. Upon one of them a pair of steel bars, answering admirably for forcing locks, were found, besides a lot of keys. Subsequently a heavy chisel was found secreted under a cushion, in the rear of the office, where the men had been placed temporarily. This is a very dangerous looking weapon, and exactly fits a chisel handle found in the pocket of one of the men. The Mayor examined them separately, and they gave their names as William Mason and William Rose. Mason stated that they had came from Philadelphia, and that he had known Rose for a week. Rose asserted that they came from Pittsburgh, and had known each other more than a year. Their statements were very contradictory, and the implements found on them gave such strong evidence of burglarious intentions, that the Mayor concluded to commit them to prison for a further hearing. Mason is about 28 years of age, and of florid complexion. Rose is about 23 years old, and has long, wavy hair. Both are well dressed and of genteel appearance.

Attempted Bank Robbery.

On Tuesday morning it was discovered that an attempt had been made to force an entrance into the vault of the Miners' Bank in Dunkirk. The thief having forced open the outer rear door and proceeded to the vault, had injected some powder through the key hole, and then, with a fuse, had exploded it. The door withstood the concussion and was uninjured. There are two doors to the vault, and a safe with two doors within, so that it would have been a hard job to force all the doors without which no booty could have been obtained.

The discovery was also made of an attempt to open the safe of the new Savings Bank. The thief had effected an entrance through the back window, and wrenched the padlock from the outer door of the safe. The other safe is powder as well as burglar proof, and it was found impossible to force it. The banks have both pretty good evidences that their funds are safe from burglars, and that paper checks alone will draw them out.

Whipped Him.

John Lambert came to the office of Alderman Lynch, on Saturday, and after being duly sworn deposed as follows: Some three weeks since he rented a tenement in the third ward of a certain real estate owner named Patrick Churcher, the possession of which was to be given him on Thursday last. At the stated time he met Churcher and demanded the key of his new domicil, as he intended to remove his personal effects into it at once.

The owner of the house coolly informed him, however, that he had leased the premises to a third party under more advantageous circumstances, and Lambert would necessarily be forced to seek other lodgings. As a matter, of course, this irritated the deponent and he called Churcher some very harsh names, and for his trouble was knocked down by the latter and cruelly beaten.

Patrick was subsequently arrested and brought before the magistrate who held him in $300 for a hearing to-day.

Startling Accident.—At the afternoon performance of Howe's Circus, in Lancaster, on Tuesday, Lazelle and King, posturers and acrobats, fell, head foremost, a distance of thirty-one feet while performing on a trapeze. King had one of his shoulders and one of his wrists fractured, and was injured internally. Lazelle received a concussion on the brain. The accident was caused by a bolt giving way. Dr. Albright, of Lancaster, and Dr. Lefevre were at the exhibition, and rendered the unfortunate men all the assistance in their power.

Man Drowned.—On Friday, as the steam boat Columbia was passing Freedom, Beaver county, a man fell overboard, opposite the shipyard of McCloskey & Kerr, and was drowned. The lifeless body was recovered in forty-five minutes afterwards. The following is a description of the body: Supposed to be an Irishman, about thirty-five years of age; five feet nine inches in height; had on a dark cassimere coat, grey cassimere pants and vest, barred flannel shirt, and coarse boots with heavy nails on the soles.

Smacked in the Mouth.—James Logan appeared before Alderman Morrow, on Saturday, and made oath charging S. P. Ross with having feloneously and without cause committed an assault and battery on the defendant by striking him a severe blow in the mouth. The parties reside in the borough of Temperanceville, where the assault is alleged to have taken place. Ross has been arrested, but was released on furnishing bail in the sum of $300 to answer at a hearing to be had in the case this afternoon.

Seriously Injured.—A young lady named Sarah M'Cormack fell out of a buggy on Pennsylvania avenue, on Saturday, and sustained injuries that may probably result fatally, her head being bruised severely and her right arm broken below the elbow. She was removed with considerable difficulty to her home on Webster street, where she lies at present in a very critical condition. Dr. Herron was the attending physician.

Oleaginous Enterprise.—One of the firms at Tidioute whose property was in the fire last Friday, purchased a new tank before the one they owned had ceased to burn. That was pretty sharp practice, but another "oil man" beat it by contracting for a new derrick and engine-house before the fire had reached the one he had already up. It is no wonder that fortunes are made down that way when the seekers exhibit that kind of spirit.

Petroleum as an Illuminator.—Investigations recently made prove that petroleum furnishes the best and cheapest of lights from fluids. The quantity of light produced by an amount of petroleum which can be bought for four cents, if made by camphene, would cost 5 cents; if whale oil, 12 cents; if lard oil, 17½ cents; if sperm oil, 26 cents, and if burning fluid, 29 cents.

Charged with Theft.—Jerome Peters came to the office of Alderman Morrow, on Saturday, and instituted proceedings against Mary Barnales, for the larceny of $35 and a quantity of childrens clothing, from the premises of the prosecutor on Townsend street, in the Sixth ward. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

The Johnstown Calamity.—The Johnstown Tribune says: "Suit is about being instituted against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for damages incurred by the falling of the platform at that place on the 14th of September. Several of our attorneys will represent the claimants."

Demand for Laborers.—There is a great demand for hands for every description of out door labor in Erie, more especially for laborers to assist in house building, as there are six hundred houses now in process of erection there at the present time.

Meadville Telegraphic District.—The telegraph operators at Meadville, Franklin and vicinity, have formed a branch of the National Telegraphic Union, to be known as the Meadville District. Nine operators signed the constitution at the first meeting.

Fined.—Mary Maguire was fined $50 and costs on Saturday by Alderman Humbert for selling liquor on Sunday. Mary is the proprietress of a drinking saloon on Penn street, in the Fourth ward.

Completion of the State Capitol Extension.—The commissioners in charge of the erection of the extension of the State Capitol, have finally taken the building off the hands of the contractor, and the work is pronounced completed.

Hotel Keeper Dead.—V. T. Doebler, proprietor of the United States Hotel, at Williamsport, Pa., is dead.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. fy11:d&w

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

The Removal of Sheriffs—More Trouble Anticipated—Attempt to Assassinate Col. Frisbie—Stock of Cotton and Sugar.

NEW YORK, October 20.—The Tribune's New Orleans special says: It is stated that as soon as Gov. Wells returned from his home in the country, the Sheriffs of the different parishes will be removed for refusing to comply with the Governor's convention proclamation. A message was sent to Washington some time since to confer with the Attorney General, who is represented as having stated in the presence of the President that the Governor had a perfect right to act. General Sheridan was applied to for military assistance to carry out this programme, and also to arrest several parties accused of having committed murders on the 30th of July, and against whom the civil authorities have failed to proceed. Action has been delayed until the troops which have since arrived, could be concentrated in this city. Threats are made that if the military attempt to make those arrests, the various rebel secret associations, which are known to be well armed, will resist and overpower the military and massacre all Union men.

The Herald's Washington special says: There are quite a number of gentlemen here who are urging parties in high places to make a formal demand on the British Government for the claims matter.

Hon. Wm. P. Hitchcock, Congressional delegate from Nebraska, has arrived in the city, and states that the grain crop of that Territory exceeds in luxuriance any that he ever saw. He thinks it a perfectly safe estimate that the wheat crop will average at least forty bushels to the acre.

An attempt was recently made to assassinate Colonel Frisbie at his hotel in Alexandria. The Colonel is extensively engaged in cotton planting, and employs five hundred negroes, who formerly served in his regiment. He was subsequently publicly notified by a committee of prominent citizens, headed by Judge Ryan, that he must leave the parish, as they wanted no Yankees there, and hereafter they would not be allowed to cultivate plantations.

There are nineteen cases of murder on the docket of Alexandria Court, and the presiding Judge represents the parish to be in such a state of anarchy that there is no prospect of bringing any of them to trial.

Returns received from trustworthy parties in the different parishes, to whom application was made for correct cotton and sugar statistics, estimate the cotton crop for the State at 250,000 bales, and the sugar at 60,000 hogsheads.

From Jamaica.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The Herald's Kingston, Jamaica, correspondence of the 6th, says: Thirteen officers of the English army had arrived for the purpose of trying Ensign Cullen and staff, and Assistant Morris, for the alleged murder three negroes who were shot without trial during the existence of martial law in October last.

It is rumored that an extensive emigration will form part of the general system of the new government of Jamaica.

The Jamaica Local Committee is still receiving donations towards the fund for prosecuting ex-Governor Eyre. Trade continued very depressed in consequence of the recent commercial failures.

The stock of American goods at market was light and prices satisfactory, but there was a total absence of confidence in business circles.

The weather has been very hot and sultry, which is favorable for the few States making sugar, but should it continue so the sugar crop next year will be short.

The Trial of Fenian Prisoners in Canada—Row in the Canadian Cabinet.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The Herald's Toronto special says: Six Fenian prisoners were arraigned here yesterday, and all pleaded not guilty. After the prisoners were removed Mr. O'Brien, Colonel Lynch's attorney, made application to the court for a safe conduct to Canada for General O'Neil and Colonel Starr, to testify that Colonel Lynch was not present during the fight at Ridgeway or Fort Erie. The Judge stated that they would be liable to arrest. A New York lawyer has proposed to defend the prisoners if permitted to plead in a Canadian court, but he was informed that it was against their laws to allow a foreigner to plead in their courts.

A Herald's Ottowa dispatch says: It is said a serious row has occurred in the Canadian Cabinet. Mr. Galt wishes to get back in his old place as Finance Minister. Mr. Howland, who left the Postoffice Department for the Financial Ministership, refuses to go back.

The trial of the three Fenian prisoners at Cornwall takes place on the 29th inst.

Baltimore Police Commissioners—The Grain Crop of Nebraska.

NEW YORK, October 20.—The Washington specials to the Times say: The contest over the Baltimore Police Commissioners is exciting much interest here, in view of the possibility that the President may be called on by the Governor to interfere. Governor Swann will probably remove the Commissioners, as he sympathizes strongly with the elements seeking their removal. The Commissioners will resist the Governor's action, on the ground that they cannot be removed except by regular trial and conviction, and they will undoubtedly assert their position by the force under their control. The offense of the Commissioners seems to be that they appoint Judges of Election who enforce the registry law so stringently that returned rebels and Southern sympathizers cannot register themselves without committing perjury.

Cincinnati Items.

CINCINNATI, October 20.—The Ohio State Fair, which has been in session at Dayton for the past three days, closed yesterday, and was a complete success.

The Cincinnati, Dayton & Eastern Railroad closed their contract yesterday leasing perpetually the Sandusky & Cincinnati Railroad, extending from Sandusky to Dayton. The gap between Dayton and Cincinnati will be filled up immediately.

The official returns from all but three counties are received. Taking the Cox and Morgan vote of the three counties, the Union majority in the State is forty-three thousand three hundred and eleven.

Gen. Sherman After the Indians.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—A Tribune Leavenworth special says: Gen. Sherman is hurrying forward troops to the scene of the Indian outrages.

FOR SALE—400 Acres of Coal Land, lying immediately upon the Ohio River, 20 miles below Gallipolis, and 185 miles above Cincinnati. On the above tract is a four foot vein of Coal, which, for general purposes, is not surpassed. It is entirely different from the Southern Ohio Coal; contains but little sulphur, forges and cokes well, and for making steam cannot be excelled. The location being about midway from Pomeroy and Hanging Rock, must make it valuable for coaling boats. There is a water front of ¾ of a mile, with a good landing at all stages of the river. An entrance has been made in the hill about 300 feet, track finished to river, together with the necessary fixtures for mining and delivering coal afloat. On said tract is first-class double Portable Circular Saw Mill together with a Portable Grist Mill, all in good running order, and plenty of the very best oak, ash and poplar timber. Would sell one-half interest if desired, to a party with experience and capital for working same.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY, October 20, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 146¾; 1881's, 113¼; 5-20's, old, 115; do new, 110¾; 10-40s, 99¾; 7-30's, 1st series, 105½; do 2d and 3d, 106. Michigan Southern, R. R., 96⅜; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 91½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 109¾; Erie R. R., 83¾; Union Telegraph Company, 54; Chicago & Rock Island, 108⅝; Chicago & North Western, 51¾; do preferred, 75½. The eastern market is weaker throughout. Gold is off about two per cent., while the Railway list varies from ½ to 1¼ down.

Our local stock market closes for the week steady, with but few sales. The market is bare of bank shares, which would bring just now more than they are intrinsically worth. The prevailing ease in money will keep the better class of stocks out of the market, it is probable for some weeks to come.

Columbia oil stock has sold to some extent during the week at prices varying from 16¼ to 16¾, and closes Saturday evening at 16½. Marine is offered at 4,05. We learn of bids at 8,75. Triumph, 50 bid, $1 asked. The rumors current in regard to a "strike", are we unable to trace to a reliable source. Small lots of Paxton continue to change hands at 8@10.

There was more paper offering for discount towards the close of the week, and rates stiffened somewhat.

—Says the New York Tribune: The Secretary of the Treasury is understood to be a buyer, through a few pet houses, of the 1st of issues of Seven Thirties at 106, and of compound notes at 2½ per cent premium. It may be for the interest of the Government to buy up its currency debt at these light premiums, but it is doubted by financiers of as much experience and more consistency than the Secretary of the Treasury. By his plan of taking up the currency debt at a premium, and by his policy of constantly watering the money market, he gives the leader of the crowd of speculators in stocks and commodities that fills the streets of the cities of the Union. But for this failure to cancel legal-tenders, as authorized to do by Congress at his earnest solicitation gold would not now be selling at 148, nor stocks and commodities at their enormous prices. Instead of reducing the volume of the currency and getting out of existence the legal tenders, which demoralize all business, his energies are devoted persistently to keeping the currency at its maximum, by paying a high premium for currency debt, which, under prudent management of his revenues, could be had at par.

—The cable quotations for the past two days for five-twenties must be understood to be ex-dividend. After the 15th of October and 17th of April the succeeding November and May coupons are cut off for transmission to New York, and the dealings on the London Exchange are ex-coupon. It is stated that the amounts transmitted abroad by the Persia, and in preparation for the steamers to sail on Saturday are unusually heavy. The adverse intimations from the Frankfort Bourse, which some of our cotemporaries have dwelt upon (partly for political effect) are certainly not borne out by what is doing this week in our own and New York market for foreign account. Some considerable parcels have already been received from abroad; the parcels in gold anticipated by the receivers, and the amount reinvested in the United States funds.

—The new five-twenty bonds are most magnificently executed, and are, so far, of the denomination of $500. They bear the motto, "In God we trust," and each coupon wears the picture of Andrew Johnson. The vignette is a fine picture of the United States Treasury building. The ten-forty coupons, miserable little things, have been counterfeited, and the old five-twenty coupons have hardly escaped the same fate. These new coupons will well nigh defy the imitators.

The Philadelphia Press says:

The daily demand for customs is estimated at four hundred thousand dollars per diem in New York alone, and the importations are on the increase. The disposition of Secretary McCulloch is to hoard all the gold received for customs, and not enter the market as a seller merely with a view of influencing prices. The course of the treasury points towards an early return to a specie basis, and as an important step towards that end, the secretary will part with his gold only for the purpose of greenback cancellation, or the payment of maturing bonds. The late decline appears to have been brought about on a supply of gold from the treasury office, paid out for the purchase of $700,000 or $800,000 United States 6s of 1867-8. This circumstance not only upset the gold ring which had been so confident, buying on Friday and Saturday at 154@164 per cent., but gave rise to the most improbable rumors as to the purpose of the Government to let loose a much larger amount of gold. It appears to be well settled that the payment of the November coupons will not be anticipated, and all dread upon that subject for the moment dissipated. A great portion of the treasure recently brought here from California is understood to be on Government account, or rather a transfer from the United States vaults in San Francisco to the Government vaults here, so that these arrivals do not in all cases, and certainly they have not of late, afforded the relief that was generally expected.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, October 20, 1866.

The produce markets have been rather duller than usual during the past week, the operations of a round lot character being somewhat restricted, though there has been a fair volume of business in the aggregate in a jobbing way. The arrivals of Flour and Grain, and, in fact, produce generally, have been on the increase during the past day or two, and of some articles, the supply is now considerably in excess of the demand. So far, however, as values are concerned, there has been no changes of an important character.

GRAIN—Wheat is in better supply and less active but unchanged; No. 1 Spring is quoted at $2,60 to $2,65. Corn also, is coming in more freely, and the market is a shade easier; sales at 95 to $1 for Shelled. Barley steady, with sales of 1 car prime old Spring at $1; 1 do new No. 1 do at $1,10; 2 do do No. 2 at $1,15. Prime No. 1 Spring is quoted at $1,20. Oats steady with sales of 2 cars at 50, on track; and sales from store at 53 to 55. No movement in Rye.

FLOUR—Continues rather dull, though the market is steady and prices are very well sustained—$11,75 to $12,25 for Spring Wheat, and $12,75 to $13,25 for Winter Wheat brands. Sale of 100 bbls "Crossett" at $11,90; 100 "Desplane" at $12,10; and 100 "Eureka" at $13,25. Rye Flour is quoted at $6,50 for old and $7,50 for new.

MILLFEED—Sale of 20 tons Middlings at $1,35, and 10 tons prime white do at $2. There is very little demand for Bran, and the inquiry for Shipstuffs and Shorts is also somewhat restricted.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet but unchanged. We quote at 17c for Shoulders; 18c for Ribbed Sides; and 25c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull with small sales of prime kettle rendered at 17¼ to 18. Mess Pork is held at $33,75 to $34.

BUTTER—Continues dull and weak, with a drooping tendency. Prime Roll cannot be quoted above 30—sale of 500 lbs choice at that figure. Common packed Butter is very dull.

EGGS—The demand still seems to keep pace with the supply, and fresh packed may be quoted steady at 30.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged—Western Reserve is selling at 17; Hamburg at 18; and Goshen at 20 to 22, as to quality.

APPLES—Coming in a little more freely, and while the market is less active, prices remain about as last quoted—$2@$3 per bbl, for fair to prime—an occasional small sale of choice at $4.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in demand and sells readily at $3. Timothy Seed is in good supply and very dull at same figure. Clover Seed is quoted at $7@$8.

HAY—Quoted at $20 to $25.

SWEET POTATOES—Dull at $4,50 to $4,75.

CRANBERRIES—Quoted firm at $15 to $20 per bbl.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, October 20, 1866.

CRUDE—The Crude market has been very dull and depressed throughout the past week, and prices are a shade lower. The demand is very much restricted, even at the decline, both refiners and shippers evincing a disposition to hold and await further developments, and while the stock is pretty well reduced, the supply is nevertheless, considerably in excess of the wants of the trade, and the tendency is still downward. We now quote at 12½ to 13, bbls returned, and in bulk, and 17¼ to 19, packages included—sale of 230 bbls at 13, and we have good reason to believe that there was a sale effected at 12¾. The advices from the east are anything but encouraging, and it must be confessed that the prospects for the future are by no means encouraging.

REFINED—There was not a single transaction in bonded oil to-day that we could hear of, and the market continues very dull and heavy, with a drooping tendency. There are some offers to buy at 33, delivered in Philadelphia, possibly 33¼ could be obtained, but thus far, our refiners are unwilling to contract at these figures, and the consequence is, we have no sales to record. Compared with the early part of the week, prices have declined from 2 to 3c per gallon, and even at the decline, the demand is by no means urgent, though it is thought that a considerable amount could be sold at the quotations above named—33 to 33½. Free oil is very dull, the demand being restricted entirely to supplying the wants of the local trade, and prices have declined to correspond with bonded.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported:

Baltimore Cattle Market.

BALTIMORE, October 18.—Beef Cattle—The offerings at the scales during the past week amounted to 934 head, against 1020 last week. Of the number received some 75 head remained unsold, and the balance were taken at the following rates: stock cattle at $5@5,50, common at $5,75@6, fair at $6,50@7, good at $7 50@8, and a few extra beeves at $8,50 per 100 pounds. Sheep—The supply was moderate, and the prices ranged from 5¼ to 6¼c per lb. Hogs—Supply moderate but equal to the demand; sales were made at $13@13,50 per 100 lbs net.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Financial Matters.

NEW YORK, October 20.—The money market is working easier and has lost all the firmness apparent on Thursday and Friday. The demand is fairly active, but is readily let at 4@5 per cent., with most of the business at the lower rate. The Government has a good supply of currency, and is gradually taking in its strict obligations privately, which prevents any stringency that might otherwise arise from the active speculation at the Stock Exchange. Prime discounts are current at 5@6 per cent. The gold market closed up at 146⅝@146¾. The two extremes of the day were 146 and 147. Cash gold has been loaned at 1-32 per cent. to flat. The recovery from the lowest point was owing to the rumors from Baltimore of the prospects of a trouble in that city on Monday.

The Stock Market at the close of the day was lower on Erie, North Western common, Fort Wayne and Cumberland, but otherwise generally steady. New York Central was strong and higher. The following are the closing quotations:

New York Central, 121½; Erie, 82½; Hudson River, 126¾; Reading, 115¾; Michigan Central, 116; Michigan Southern, 90; Illinois Central, 127; Pittsburgh, 91⅝; North Western, 55¾; North Western preferred, 75⅝; Toledo, 120; Rock Island, 108½; Fort Wayne, 109¾; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 33¼.

Government securities were heavy and lower this afternoon under sales to realize the profits of the late advance. The following were the closing prices: Registered, 1881, 113¾@113⅞; Coupons, 1881, 113⅝@113¾; 5-20s Registered of 1862, 106@106½; 5-20s of 1862, 115⅜@115½; 5-20 Coupons, of 1864, 110⅜@110½; 5-20 Coupons, of 1865, 115¼@115⅜; 10-40s Registered, 99¾@99⅞.

The Commercial's money article says: The money market is scarcely so firm. Some 4 per cent loans have been called in, but it has not been found easy to replace them at 5 per cent, and the week closes apparently with a re-actionary tendency towards a 4 percent market. To-day transactions are reported at 4@5 per cent, but the lower appears to be the prevailing rate. Discounts are firm at 5@6 per cent, the transactions at the lower rate being confined to specialities. Governments show a slight reaction from the improvement of the last few days. There is less demand for old 5-20s, and the price is ⅛ lower, other securities sympathizing. The Government has used a portion of its surplus currency in the purchase of 7-30s and compound notes at the current market price. The stock market is active but irregular; North Western continues to lead the market and advanced 112 at the morning board; N. Y. C. and M. S. were also strong, but with these exceptions the market is generally lower. Gold opened weak at 147, and steadily fell off to 146¾. The market being well supplied and loans being made flat to 1-32 per cent. per day.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Cotton irregular and declining, at 39c for middling Uplands, and 41c for Orleans. Flour 15@25c better, at $8,70@10,75 for Extra State, $10,80@12 90 for Extra R. H. Wheat 3@5c better, at $2,26 for No. 2 Chicago Spring, $2,30@2,34 for No. 2 Milwaukee, and $2,27 for new White Michigan. Rye 2@3c better; Old Western, $1,21@1,22. Barley active and 2@3c better, at $1,05 for Chicago. Corn active, excited, unsettled, irregular and 3@4c higher; demand chiefly speculative and largely for western accounts, at $1,03@1,04, and $1,03@1,07 for shipping Mixed Western in store, $1,07 do afloat, $1,08@1,09 for Western Yellow in store, and $1,10@1,15 for White Western in store, closing rather quiet. Oats 1c better, at 58@60 cents for Chicago, and 61 cents for Milwaukee. Petroleum dull and nominal, at 22c for Crude; Refined in Bond, 38@40c. Pork excited and decidedly higher, but closing heavy at $33,75@34,00 for new mess, closing $33,00 cash, $31,00 for old do, and $30,50@29,75 for Prime; also 1,250 barrels of new mess, $33,85 sellers option for October, $33,31; sellers option to November 4th, $31,00; sellers option November, $28,87@29,00, sellers option all year, and $27,00 sellers option for January. Beef unchanged. Cut meats heavy at 14@14½c for shoulders, and 17@18 for Hams dressed. Hogs heavy, at 12½@13 for western. Lard heavy at 15@17. Butter heavy at 20@23 for Ohio.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

NEW YORK, October 20.—Flour—The market has been very active and much excited during the past week. Prices have advanced from 75c to $1 a barrel. There was much excitement at the close, and there is a heavy demand, partly for forward delivery. There is a prospect of still higher prices. The diminishing stock creates apprehension that there will be a short supply this winter. The present stock is only 75,000 barrels, against 350,000 barrels at the same time last year. Wheat—The disparity in the stock of wheat is still greater than in flour. The present supply being 175,000 bushels against 1,700,000 last year. The market has been rather more active, and closes 4c a bushel higher for spring. Winter wheat is held firm and higher. Corn is 3 to 4 cents a bushel higher. The transactions of the week were very heavy. Oats have improved 3 cents a bushel. The demand has been partly for export, which is a new feature of the market. Barley has been active, and fluctuated. The market closes firm at last week's prices. There has been some demand for export, which is also a new feature of the market. Western Rye is 12 to 15 cents a bushel higher, and is very active. Pork has advanced $1 a barrel. There is a corner in the market, and persons who have sold on future delivery are in a tight place. Lard has declined 1½ to 2 cents a pound, and closes flat.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The continued quietness in the market and the dullness in the cotton market cause a slight softening in some goods during the day yesterday, and this morning there are further indications of lower prices. The trade the past week has been all that manufacturers, agents or jobbers expected, and has been highly satisfactory to all concerned. Goods have been sold very low, but at amply remunerative prices, and there is more than ever before an encouraging indication of a return to a healthy settled condition in the dry goods business. Brown Sheetings—Stark A, 23; do M, 22; Boots, 17. Bleached Shirting—New York Mills, 45; Bates, 35; Blackstone, 29. Prints—Merrimack, 19; Waregan, 38. Ginghams—Lancaster, 27½; Hartford, 22½. Cambrics—Washington, 14½; Portland, 11½.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, with but little over three feet in the channel last evening. The weather yesterday was cloudy and warm, with every appearance of rain.

Mr. M. C. McConnell, clerk of the Minnie, is suffering considerably from that painful and annoying, though not very dangerous disease, "chills and fever." He is subject to chills almost every other day.

We regret to learn that Geo. Woods, steward of the W. A. Caldwell, which boat left here some weeks since for Arkansas river, died of cholera a few days ago, and was buried about thirty miles this side of Evansville. The deceased was a young man, and resided with his widowed mother in Manchester, and he was her only support.

As the river is down to a low water stage, it is thought that the steamer Yorktown, which boat it will be remembered, sunk at Proctor, a short distance from Sunfish, some days since, will be raised with but little difficulty.

Passengers and shippers should bear in mind that the Rob Roy, Capt. Beers, will positively leave for Cincinnati to-day.

The Bayard succeeded in reaching the wharf on Friday evening, having been detained by low water at Glass House since Thursday. Both her and the Grey Eagle have been compelled to withdraw from the Parkersburg trade for the present. The Forest City left in place of the Eagle on Saturday. We presume that a low water boat will be substituted in place of the Bayard.

The Rob Roy, from Cincinnati, and the Delaware, from St. Louis arrived—the former on Friday night, and the latter on Saturday forenoon. The latter boat has been about a week making the run from Cincinnati to this port, but it should be remembered she had two barges of metal in tow, and countered heavy fogs almost every night. The Rob Roy is in command of Capt. Charles Beers, and Mr. T. S. Calhoun has charge of the office.

The America, Capt. Thos. H. Golding is filling up steadily for New Orleans, as is also the Minnie, Capt. A. H. Shaw, for St. Louis. These are both good boats, and are in charge of gentlemanly and experienced officers.

Capt. Robinson is having some repairs made on the Kate Robinson, and he wishes it understood that he is next in turn for St. Louis after the Minnie.

Says the St. Louis Democrat, of Thursday: George Skiminins Smith, 2d mate of the Pauline Carroll, was drowned at the wharf on Tuesday afternoon. He fell into the river while stepping from the steamer to the wharf boat, and instantly disappeared. Deceased was brought up in Donaghadee, fourteen miles from Belfast, Ireland. He lived in St. Louis, and leaves a wife and five children.... The Bee, towboat, of the M. V. T. Co.'s line, made her last trip to and from New Orleans in 15 days. By far the quickest yet.

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., October 18.—7 P. M.—EDS. COM.—There are 6 feet in pass over the falls, and on a stand. Down—Samuel J. Hale. Up—Champion. The towboats Bigley and Wild Cat arrived from Pittsburgh with coal, and returned with a tow of empty barges.

D. M. DRYDEN, Falls Pilot.

The Sherman, Camelia and R. C. Gray were advertised at Cincinnati on Thursday for Pittsburgh. The Cincinnati Gazette of Friday, says:

The flags on the landing were at half mast for the death of the well-known and esteemed river man, Mr. John Smith, pilot, who has long been suffering, and died at six o'clock, Wednesday; and Mr. Robert Minor, engineer of the Maggie Hays, who was taken suddenly with cholera yesterday, and died at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Charles, in Newport. Clerk Henry Moulton is convalescing from a long, severe and dangerous sickness, lasting for four months, during which he has relapsed three times. Capt. Benj. Courson, the well-known Pittsburgh steamboat builder, is in the city, as the guest of Capts. Hendrickson and Cox.

The Convention of Inspectors, in session at Buffalo, New York, on the 11th inst., passed the following resolution:

"WHEREAS, The classification of engineers adopted at the annual meeting of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, at St. Louis, October, 1865, does not work advantageously on the western waters; therefore,

"Resolved, That so much of that classification as refers to the classification of engineers upon western rivers is hereby repealed, and that all western river engineers fall back upon the original grade of first and second engineer."

All Diseases of the Lungs.

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP

PITTSBURGH, JANUARY 11, 1866.

DR. KEYSER—My wife has been afflicted with by cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward

PITTSBURGH, April 24, 1857.

READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without benefit, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely or her cough.

JOHN DARIN,
Robinson street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURGH, December 31,

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP. I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

JOHN C. LITTLE,
Witness R. F. KERR. Peebles township.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14, 1848.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which everyone supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.

JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. Almost everybody around us has the cold, and are enquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., told us they would not be without it in their families, in fact, all who use it once want it again.

Yours, respectfully,
J. S. WATTERSON & SONS.

January 30, 1860.

PITTSBURGH, November 18, 1858.

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure indescribable to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP. As a medicine, it is well worthy the attention of any person, who may in any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found, purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, March 14, 1865.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine. I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in this regard as you think proper.

E. F. PRATT.
Messenger Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow-citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me personally.

E. F. P.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE.—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I had been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely.

(Signed) J. W. SIMONTON,
No. 246 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

January 9th, 1860.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?" Go to Keyser's, on Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears every day in cold-catching periods of the year. And we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, contrary, mulish, unsubduable coughs we ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact, it seemed rather to have improved by practice, and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this stage of the siege we coughed our way to Keyser's, No. 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14, 1859.
